

Practical Management & Leadership Consulting

Jessica Ellis-Wilson, FACMPE (she/they) is an accomplished consultant, speaker, and coach with over 25 years of experience in the healthcare and nonprofit spaces. A Board-Certified Fellow of the American College of Medical Practice Executives and a certified Community Health Worker, Jessica is the founder and principal of Practical Management and Leadership Consulting.

Jessica now splits their time between consulting and creative endeavors, as they are also an accomplished actor, director, artist, author, intimacy director, playwright, producer, and designer. Jessica is the Artistic and Managing Director of the WatermelonAlligator Theatre Company and co-founder of Danu Pictures.

Jessica is a member of American Mensa and serves as Chair for their national-level Diversity and Inclusion Committee. They are a Past President of the Massachusetts/Rhode Island Medical Group Management Association (MGMA) and are proud to serve on the boards of several nonprofit and community-based organizations.

A former executive leader, Jessica has worked with myriad organizations across the economic spectrum and offers counseling and education on compliance, human resources, talent management, workflows redesign, process improvement, project management, and staff and provider education. They offer leadership consulting in such fields as executive coaching, organizational growth, and cultural transformation, with a special focus on diversity, equity, and inclusion, as well as facilitating Board/Executive retreats.

Jessica is regularly invited to speak nationally on a variety of subjects and is often touted for their lively, engaging, and informative presentations.